DeWitt T. Milam, 76, died Thursday morning in a local hospital after a lengthy illness. He was a member of the Methodist Church and a retired electrician and farmer. Survivors include one son, Howard of Hope; two sisters, Mrs. Worth Smith of Lancaster, Texas and Mrs. Emma Renfro of Wilmer, Texas. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today in Oakcrest Chapel with Rev. Connie Robbins officiating. Burial was in Memory Gardens with Oakcrest Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The House may have to grapple with the problem of whether to seat New York's Adam Clayton Powell, ousted in 1967 after being accused of misusing federal funds. President Johnson is expected to press hard for early Senate action on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, but that chamber could get bogged down first in the biennial and always controversial move to moderate the filibuster rule that requires a two-thirds vote to limit debate. Even the usually routine canvass of presidential returns could provide a spark or two. Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Rep. James O'Hara, D-Mich., said they will ask Congress Monday to reject a North Carolina electoral vote cast for third party candidate George C. Wallace and award it to Nixon. Nixon carried North Carolina, but because of the switch got only 12 of the state's 13 votes. The pair said they wanted to "insure the integrity of this election . . . and to effectively dramatize the danger of continuing to operate under this outmoded, haphazard and undemocratic method of electing a president."

The Powell issue is the thorniest facing the House. Powell has twice been re-elected by his Harlem district since he was denied his seat in the 90th Congress. Some Republicans are planning to move to seat the New Yorker this time but fine him 10,000, strip him of seniority and censure him. Others said they flatly oppose seating him and it takes only one objection to force a roll call. Democrats, holding a 243-192 majority in the House and a 57-43 edge in the Senate, said in advance of the 1969 session they would try to co-operate with Nixon.

But there were frequent warnings that he could lose their support should the board if Republicans tried to scuttle Great Society programs. The pay raise proposal would provide a $50,000 increase for Nixon, making his salary $150,000. It would have to be passed by both House and Senate and signed into law before he takes the oath Jan. 20 or he would not be eligible for it until and unless he wins a second term. This would help to pave the way for a substantial pay raise for members of Congress and other high government officials expected to be recommended by President Johnson.

A special commission has proposed to Johnson that senators and representatives be hiked from $30,000 to $50,000. He will make his recommendations when he submits his budget in about two weeks. Senate leaders also have said they expect early action on ratification of the treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons, a piece of business hanging over from the 1968 session.

Hershel H. Homer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Homer, 109 N. 5th St., Lovington, recently was promoted to lieutenant colonel at the Army Primary Helicopter Center where he is acting center chaplain. His wife, Janellie, and Colonel Lloyd G. Huggins, center commander, pinned the new insignia of grade to his uniform. Chaplain Homer is a native of Nashville, Ark. He graduated from high school in Levelland, Texas, in 1951 and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, in 1957. He entered the Army in July of that year and he has served overseas in Korea and Germany as well as Vietnam. Mrs. Homer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard M. Shackelford, live in Montague, Texas. The chaplain and his family live in Fort Wolters, Texas. He is a brother of Mrs. Van Horn of Hope.

Cold in Alaska? Are You Kidding?—a Cat Is Chopped From Ice

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — It's so cold they had to chop the cat out of the ice, the car radio goes "knock, knock" and propane torches shoot liquid instead of fire.

But Alaskans know how to cope with temperatures well below zero. They just stay indoors and go out only if it's necessary. Central Alaska is in the middle of a frigid weather front that has sent temperatures tumbling like icicles in a spring thaw. It's been like that for three days. However, it's expected to warm up today to temperatures of 25 to 20 below. Comfortable enough to celebrate Alaska's 10th year as a state today.

Thursday evening the mercury dropped to minus 56 and the overnight forecast called for a low of -65. The all-time low is -66 recorded on Jan. 14, 1934. Schools have shut down but it's business as usual in downtown Fairbanks. About 42 inches of snow covers the ground although no new snow has fallen in a week. Thick ice fog has cut visibility in some downtown areas to 10 feet and has disrupted airline schedules. It's caused by warm air rising from the ground which turns to fog as it hits the frigid air.

"Even with the minimal sunlight we get here, it's enough to warm the ground a bit and that causes the warm air to rise," Shane O'Neill, a Fairbanks resident, said Thursday. The Weather Bureau said the average temperature for December was 117.7 or 10 degrees colder than normal. The highest temperature for the month was 36 degrees on Dec. 19. New Year's Day it was 60 below—four degrees below the record for the day set in 1965. It warmed up Thursday to -59—another record for the date. O'Neill said firemen had to free a cat after its paws became stuck in ground ice.

"Apparently it licked its paws because they were so cold and when it set them down they froze to the ground," he said. And, in the icy conditions propane gas turns to liquid. "One fellow was using a propane torch outside to try and thaw an oil line to his house. The flame stopped and liquid started shooting out," O'Neill said.

The cold also flattens car tires by decreasing the air pressure inside. "It's like riding on square tires until they loosen up," said O'Neill. Motorists are advised to increase the air pressure.

Even cars with special heaters that plug into outside outlets won't work. "Unless they're inside a warm garage they won't start. I turned on my car radio today and it went knock, knock. It sounded like a hammer pounding on the thing. Later it warmed up and worked all right."

Homeowners must constantly check fuel and water pipes. And precautions must be taken to guard against frostbitten ears. "It's very painful when they thaw out. They turn white, then after eight or 12 hours they're red and if you're lucky the outer skin won't peel off," O'Neill said.

10th Year Sunday for Calvary

Calvary Baptist Church will observe its tenth birthday this Sunday. The church was organized as a mission from First Baptist Church in October, 1957 and was constituted as an independent congregation on January 4, 1959.

Calvary Church has been served by five pastors in her history: James Hunt, now living in Fort Smith; J.D. Passmore, pioneer missionary in the state of Washington; John Finn, Association missionary in North Arkansas; Gerald Schiff, missionary in Rhodesia, Africa; and presently Thomas Simmons.

The Calvary Baptist Church maintains an enlarged ministry with many points of outreach. It conducts a weekly rest-home service at the Hempstead County Rest Home, a daily radio program over KXAR and two Bible Classes during the week. This month the church will broadcast the Sunday Morning Services over KXAR at 11 a.m., in cooperation with the radio station.

Beginning with one building, the church now occupies three large ones on West Avenue B. This past year the church completed a children's building, remodeled her old educational unit, and did general redecorating in the Pastor's Study and Counseling Room.

Nuclear Ban Treaty to Await Nixon

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Action on the nuclear non-proliferation treaty is the major task facing the new Senate, but chances for ratification before President Johnson leaves office appear slim.

Failure by the Senate to ratify the treaty, intended to curb the spread of nuclear weapons, before Jan. 20 would be a major disappointment for Johnson.

He repeatedly called for quick Senate action before Congress adjourned last October and as late as early December was still thinking of calling the Senate into special session to consider the treaty.

Senate Republican leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois has left up to Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana the decision on when to bring up the question.

Dirksen said in an interview he is willing to take it up as soon as organization matters have been cleared away after Friday convening of Congress.

Mansfield has promised Johnson to act quickly.

However, Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., have piped an attack on the Senate's rule 22 which requires two-thirds approval of those voting to choke off a filibuster.

Dirksen said that his biennial argument over changing the Senate's rules at the start of each new Congress could consume a week if no agreement is reached.

The Senate will swear in its new members Friday. There is doubt that it will convene after a joint session of Congress Monday to canvass the presidential election returns. Thus the battle over the rules is not likely to get under way until Jan. 7.

Beyond that, moreover, lies opposition to the treaty's terms that may spawn lengthy debate which could preclude a ratification vote before President-elect Nixon takes office.

Nixon has said he favors ratification. But he suggested during the campaign that action on the treaty be delayed because of the Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia.

"Nixon has raised no public objection to early action in the new session. But there is a feeling among some Republicans that he would not be adverse to having future ratification of the treaty as a bargaining point in any early meeting that might be arranged between him and Russian leaders."

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., has asked for additional hearings by the Senate foreign relations committee, which already has approved the treaty.

Aiken says he wants to make sure that the passage of peaceful nuclear information along to nonnuclear countries will not result in subsidizing future operations by oil combines.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., has raised the issue of the treaty's lack of inspection provisions to enforce its terms.

Arkansas. Temperatures are expected to dip below 10 degrees in the northwest section of the state and register in the teens in the southwest section.

An arctic cold front is the reason for the colder than normal readings. The front is expected to move through the state today, possibly producing some snow flurries in the northern portion.

Temperatures Thursday reached the low 50s in the state.

Calendar of Events

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4

The Friday Music Club luncheon and opera listening program will be held Saturday, January 4 at 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Haskell Jones in Oakhaven. The meal will be potluck, and Grieg's "Song of Norway" will be the music heard. All members and associate members are invited.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 5

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held at 11:00 a.m. in The First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, January 5.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8

The First Presbyterian Church will hold a Family Night Supper at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 8. The Supper will be followed by the annual congregational meeting for the purpose of electing church officers (Deacons and Elders), to adopt the financial budget for 1969, to receive reports of the Sunday School and other departments and agencies of the church for 1968 and to transact other related business as may arise.

The Junior Choir will practice at 3:45 p.m.

There will be a Family Night Supper and an Annual Congregational meeting at 6:30 p.m. tonight.

The Synod of Arkansas—Oklahoma will meet in Ft. Smith, Ark. The delegates to the 24 state court of the Southern Presbyterian Church from Hope will be The Rev. James E. Sewell and Judge James H. Pilkinton.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 9

The Hope Men's Golf Association will meet at the Hope Country Club Thursday, January 9 at 6:30 p.m. for dinner prepared by Mrs. Jim Reddick. At 7:30 p.m. a golf film in color will be shown, and all members will enjoy it.

Notice

The Jan. 6 meeting of the Ann Wollerman, night group of the W.M.S. of the First Baptist Church has been cancelled due to the January church wide Bible Study. The next meeting will be on Jan. 20, 1969.

HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

A holiday Open House was held at the Tom Watson home Sunday afternoon, December 29 for college-age Methodist young people. New Year's Resolutions was the theme for the red and gold decorations on the serving table.

Holly and candles made the setting festive, and dips 'n' chips were served with cold drinks. Pleasant fellowship was enjoyed throughout the party.

SENIOR CITIZENS MET

The Senior Citizens met Thursday, January 2 at the new center on Texas street. Mrs. Ola Smith opened the meeting by reading a poem. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved. Mrs. Dora Worthem read a recipe for the new year. Each member told of his Christmas. Mrs. Ruth Sutton won the door prize. Dominoes were played, after which coffee, cookies, and cold drinks were served. The meeting closed with everyone reciting "The Lord's Prayer" in unison. The next meeting will be Jan. 16.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Cause of Hydrocele Unknown in Most Cases

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—My doctor says I have a hydrocele. He tapped it three times but it always comes back. What can be done for it?

A—A hydrocele is an accumulation of lymph in the scrotal sac. In most cases, the cause is unknown. After simple tapping the fluid almost always comes back. A more effective treatment is tapping followed by the injection of a sclerosing fluid—an agent that causes the walls of the sac to adhere to the testicles or an operation that destroys the secreting surface of the sac.

Q—The left portion of my scrotal sac is much larger than the right and feels like a bag of worms. What causes this and what is the best treatment?

A—You have a varicocele—varicose veins in your scrotum. It is caused by an obstruction of the main vein leading away from the sac. The cause of the obstruction may be a tumor, in which case it should be removed. In most cases, however, the cause is unknown. Since the condition is harmless, no treatment is needed or advisable. The results of attempts at surgical correction have been unsatisfactory.

Q—I am 60 and have always had good health. Now my doctor says I have epididymitis. Is it contagious? How did I get it? Can it be cured?

A—This is an inflammation of the epididymis which is a part of the testicle. It is not contagious although it may be caused by such communicable diseases as mumps, gonorrhea and tuberculosis or by an injury. The treatment would depend on the cause.

Q—My son, 16, is well-developed except that his penis is about the size of an 8-year-old's. Our doctor says that when he is 19 he will be O.K. Can't anything be done for him now? The boys at school make fun of him all the time.

A—The teasing of a boy by his classmates can be very cruel. Barring a rare hormonal imbalance, which your doctor would have noted and corrected, there is no effective treatment for this condition. Some boys' external genitals develop more slowly than others. But, as your doctor has told you, this will be no handicap to your son as an adult.

Q—Following an attack of sinus trouble six months ago I lost my sense of smell. Will it ever come back?

A—Not until the inflammation in your nasal tissues has been eliminated.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset

West rose with the ace and returned a club, whereupon South made his contract instead of going down two.

While East and West were fighting about their failure to take their six top tricks, North tried to pour oil on troubled waters by pointing out that four hearts was a laydown and that maybe South should have found some way to show his good five card heart suit.

All this doesn't seem to be enough to qualify a hand for the worst of a year. Lots of people fail to set three no-trump contracts. The really bad feature did not come out until later on when the players looked over the scores.

The game was match point duplicate and not only did North and South receive a top score for making three no-trump, but they would have the same top score for going down two tricks at three no-trump. What's more they would still have a top if they had gone down two tricks doubled.

It seems that the next best North-South score was minus 790. North had opened his singleton trump against four spades doubled. South took his ace and led a second trump to hold West to his contract. At all other tables the contract was four or five spades doubled and a heart was opened, whereupon West would take 11 tricks to score either 990 or 850, depending on whether he was doubled at four or five.

Today's hand would qualify as the worst hand of 1968 except for one thing. It was played in 1967!

West opened the king of spades against the three no-trump contract. East played the three and South the ace. South led the 10 of diamonds and went up with dummy's ace when West showed out. There was no point losing more than necessary so South cashed his five hearts and led the jack of clubs.

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 N.T.	Pass	1	4
2 N.T.	Pass	2	?

You, South, hold:

K J 6 5 4 A K Q 9 8 5 4 3 2

What do you do now?

A—Bid three hearts. This clearly shows that you have at least five cards in each of your suits. Leave further bidding to your partner.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of responding one no-trump partner raises your spade opening to two. What do you do now?

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bittel

Dear Readers: Over the years I have had many requests for a reprint of a "delinquency rules" written by Judge Philip Gilliam, Denver Juvenile Court. Here they are:

HOW TO MAKE A JUVENILE DELINQUENT

If these instructions are carefully followed, we guarantee that your child will become delinquent. This formula is almost infallible.

THE RULES

Don't give your son any religious or spiritual training. Just Don't give your son any religious or spiritual training. Just take care of his bodily needs.

In his presence don't be respectful of womanhood or of law and government. Belittle "dames" and the courts, the police, public officials, the school, the church, and business. "It's all a racket!"

Never look for the real cause of untruthfulness in your child. You might discover he learned the art of lying from you.

Never try to answer the endless "Whys" and "Hows" because it pays to be ignorant.

Be sure to humiliate your child in the presence of his friends.

If a conflict in will arises between you and your child, don't try to reason with him. Just knock him down. . . your father was boss of HIS home and the kids may as well learn the "hard" way.

Be sure to criticize departed guests in the presence of the child. He will respect your integrity.

Never give him a reason for the commands laid down; let him guess—it's much easier.

Don't consider his educational and emotional development a parental responsibility. What are schools for?

Don't let him discuss his plans, problems or pleasures with you.

Just be too busy, so that he won't develop affection or security, or trust in you.

Don't open your home to his companions. And don't be concerned where he spends his free time.

Don't teach your child tolerance toward people who differ from him in race, creed or color.

Don't give him an allowance, because he might learn how to save or spend wisely. Don't ask him to give to community needs or services, as this teaches selfishness.

Be shocked and explode when he tells you he has done something wrong. Then he won't confide in you next time.

Never let your child forget that if it weren't for you he would not have a roof over his head. He'll love to hear of the many sacrifices you have made for him.

Make your home a dumping ground for your grouches.

Be sure to forget the promises you make to your child, so that he will forget the promises he makes to you.

Always accuse your daughter of being promiscuous with every date, and tell her all boys are devils.

Always leave your keys in the car. This encourages stealing.

Never praise your child for his worthwhorships because he might try harder to please in the future.

Never give him any affection, and never tell him how much you love him.

Don't include him in your amusements and activities. He would only be in the way.

If you forget all the above, just remember this one: Be a poor example yourself. You'll find he follows in your footsteps, and we'll soon be seeing him in Juvenile Court.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) - "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was in prison and you came to me," he said the chief thrust is to refocus "personal ethics" toward mitigating the modern world's "vast impersonal problems of poverty."

Organizational, the hub of it is the newly-established joint Roman Catholic-World Council Committee on Society, Development and Peace, headed by a Jesuit, the Rev. George H. Dunne, at the Council's headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.

Functionally, however, the trend has proliferated throughout this country and abroad in scores of new interdenominational projects to strengthen economically-deprived areas and communities and to ease church financial pressure in their behalf.

But the stepped-up religious efforts in this direction also produced resistance and controversy, including protests from groups opposing church involvement in social issues.

"Ever since Jesus scared the life out of a rich young ruler by telling him to sell all he had and give the proceeds to the poor, Christians have been ill at ease about property—and for good reason," says the Rev. Dr. Harvey Cox, of Harvard Divinity School.

He says money and property have tended to hold "the church in captivity," but attempts now were being made to break out of that mold.

Biblical passages are "very blunt" about this, Father Riga writes in the Catholic World. "A Christian who has wealth must use it in the service of his brothers who are poor" or stand condemned by "many of the gospel texts."

The axis of Central America extends southeast and northwest.

Regard for the Poor First Commandment of Christian World

liances of action, it has become the main front of "sharp growth in the Christian unity," Dr. Smith says.

Citing many signs of this "intensification of the churches' attempt to make the gospel incarnate at the points of human need," he said the chief thrust is to refocus "personal ethics" toward mitigating the modern world's "vast impersonal problems of poverty."

God's Word

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

Says Come

In The Beginning

... God created all things. He gave us science and He gave us religion ... they never conflict. His words and His works harmonize.

He can perform both scientific and spiritual miracles. God can take the nucleus, the cell, the molecule and get staggering results. He can also take a body that has almost gone to hell and convert it into a man. The laboratory and the human body are the Lord's work shops. He can pull a switch and set it all to work. He is still saying ... "My thoughts are not as your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways." His church on the corner is a good place to learn that fancied discords blend in perfect harmony. Won't you attend services somewhere this week?

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination
for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker and attend services regularly.

These businessmen listed below urge everyone to get behind the churches. They alone provide a solution to the problems facing us.

Vintage Year for Loony Larceny

By MEADER G. PATTINGTON
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Well, 1968 produced no kitchen sinks, but it did hit the next closest thing. In Greensboro, N.C., a bathtub fell off a truck and before the trucker could pick it up three men drove off with it. And in Laramie, Wyo., a girl told police that someone stole the bathtub from her apartment.

Numbers were no obstacle to thieves in 1968, for in Manila 13,600 feet of telephone wire were taken and in Denmark another thief stole a length of power line leaving most of a town in darkness. Burglars stole a roof in Kemp, Tex. A large metal building was stolen in Tulsa, Okla. And a road grader, 35 feet long and weighing tons, was stolen from a nursery near Camden, N.Y.

Again numbers mean little, for an enterprising marauder stole 20,000 worms from a bait dealer in Albuquerque, N.M. Another prowler stole 46 canaries from a woman in San Antonio, Tex. For variety, a burglar took two small dogs, four baby alligators and several parakeets from a pet store in St. Louis, Mo.

The longest theft of 1968 was the stealing of 26 miles of skins used in stuffing sausages from a meat plant in Cambridge, England.

A rancher in Glendale, Ariz., found that during the night thieves had cut his hay field, used his baler to bundle the hay and carted it off. And in Calcutta, India, thieves over a period of time carried off more than 130,000 tons of standing rice; 250,000 acres were involved and a mob of 500 took part in the giant theft.

Animals really made the news. Dozens of eggs stolen from doorsteps in Leeds, England, were finally traced to a raw-egg-loving dog. And in Knoxville, Tenn., a purse-snatching dog was caught by a humane officer. A family's pet dog stole a bank bag containing $3,500 and was caught dragging the money bag around the back yard. And perhaps a large, hungry dog was the reason for a theft in Montgomery, Ala., where 15 pounds of ribs, 25 pounds of neckbones, 19 pounds of bologna, three hams, 10 pounds of franks, and a beef roast disappeared. A crook in Detroit left so rapidly that his dog was picked up by police and led them to his master's home. And a housebreaker's dog jumped up on a couch where the owner of a Vancouver, Wash., home was sleeping and woke her up licking her face. Screams drove off the disappointed thief.

Robbers had no respect for the law in 1968. Four court gavelers were taken in Kelso, Wash., so that only one judge now has a means of bringing order. The court wall clock was stolen in Laramie, Wyo. One burglar fled a Ventura, Calif., jail with $925 taken from the jail safe.

A dozen burglar alarms were taken from a store in Butte, Mont. A station wagon owner in Seattle installed a burglar alarm in his wagon, thieves broke in and along with $1,500 worth of various items took, you guessed it, the burglar alarm. But the greatest insult to injury addition was in Syracuse, N.Y. A car was stolen as the owner was loading it. The thief ran over the owner's foot as he drove off.

There were mean thieves in 1968, too. A man sitting in a wheelchair was robbed of $229 in Detroit. A Sheerness, England, man had his left arm (artificial) stolen during a robbery. Two break-ins at a church in Richmond, Va., must have furnished enough equipment to start a new church for the robbers who took 50 volumes of a prayer book, 40 Bible story books, a large Bible, an engraved communion setting, several alms basins, another prayer book, the chance cross and a vacuum cleaner.

Police were smart in 1968. A robbery suspect wearing a miniskirt in Dallas was trapped when his knobby knees and awkward gait tipped off the police. Police captured store robbers in Spokane, Wash., because one was on crutches and their get-away attempt was still further slowed down when the two drove down a dead-end street. In Toronto, two hoods had their stickup foiled when one of them tried to vault over a counter, caught his foot and took a nasty fall. Another thief tried to rob a Los Angeles bank just two hours after another thief had made off with $411. FBI agents investigating the first robbery collected the would-be cleanupman. A man in St. Louis was robbed of $312. As he drove toward a police station, two other thugs again held him up. When told of the earlier stick-up, they called the driver names and disappeared. Another burglar broke through a roof of a store in Hartshorne, Okla., opened a door and found himself right in the middle of a town meeting.

After three burglaries in six months a disgusted home owner rigged up a shotgun booby trap to a closet door. Forgetting the trap one night, he opened the door and wound up in the hospital.

Cars were much in the 1968 news. Mexico City authorities say that 10,000 cars valued at $12 million are stolen annually in Mexico. Only about 3,000 are ever recovered, most of them stripped.

A cab driver in Hamilton, Bermuda, really was a heavy sleeper. Sleeping in the city hall parking lot, he was robbed of his wallet, his watch and his shirt. Another heavy-sleeper, a Cincinnati woman, awoke to find that her $239 wig had been stolen from her head.

Told to take a test drive, a prospective buyer drove off in a car from a used car lot in Troy, N.Y., and apparently liked his bargain so well that he never brought it back. Monday really is blue for a New York City man. One Monday, a registration certificate was stolen from his car's glove compartment; exactly one week later, the car battery was taken, and the following Monday the rest of the car was stolen.

Some burglars were hungry. A Baltimore burglar climbed up to a second-floor porch, broke through four nailed-shut doors and stole a dozen hamburgers—after grilling them first. Another thief, who broke into a diner in York, Neb., fried and ate a cheeseburger and potatoes before escaping. A Commerce City, Colo., burglar was caught in a pizza parlor with his hands in the dough. Burglars of a Minneapolis meat market carried off $30 in cash, $500 worth of meat, and two cleavers for cutting up same. Another Minneapolis man, in answer to a thug's demand for his wallet, threw the holdup artist a bag. The thug fled. The bag contained one dozen doughnuts.

Even in larceny, however, there's room for the thoughtful touch. Two bandits in North Miami Beach, Fla., tied up a couple, robbed their home of about $10,000 worth of jewels and cash, then told them, "Don't worry, we'll call the police." Officers arrived 10 minutes later and freed the couple.

A burglar broke into a country estate in Edmund, Okla., left a note telling the owner he wouldn't miss anything since he was rich and the burglar was poor. He assured the owner that he need not worry, since he would never return again, and concluded with, "God bless you and thank you."

The note, however, was unsigned.

Bodcaw Ruins Fights Last Night Clean Sweep by Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Both Hope girls basketball teams won their second straight last night, but the Bodcaw Blue-Devils ruined a possible sweep by downing the Hope "B" Lizards 87-79 in the finale at Bodcaw.

The opening game pitted the HHS Junior Girls against their Bodcaw counterparts, and the locals had no problems in walloping the opponents 33-8 in a breath-

Balinda East and Janet McCain paced Hope out to an 11-0 lead at the quarter, and left no doubt by halftime with the margin up to 24-2. Everyone got to play in the second half, as Coach Charlotte Gibson watched her Kitty Cats move their season mark to 2-4. East fired in 15 points and McCain canned 14 to lead Hope, and Cindy Hollis contributed four more. Butler and Goodwin totalled four apiece for Bodcaw.

Shooting an improved 45 per cent in the first half, the Hope Lady Cats struck fast and sailed to a 49-39 win over the Devillets of Bodcaw.

There was never any doubt of the final outcome, though a late rally against the Lady Cat substitutes made the score seem somewhat closer than the game itself. Dee Singleton and Sandra Saltee each threw in 7 points as Hope jumped to a 15-2 edge at the quarter, and that margin quickly grew to 30-9 by halftime.

With all the locals seeing action in the third and fourth quarters, the spread lessened toward the finish, but the game itself was a good warmup before the Ladies run-in with Ashdown tomorrow night in Hope.

Now 4-6 for the year, the Lady Cats were paced by Jo McKamie's 15 points, with Singleton's 10 coming second. Eva Jo Hale and Sandra Saltee made it a well-balanced evening by adding 9 points each. Debbie Powell had four, and Louise Kramer netted two points. Of course, the guards did their usual fine job in throttling the opposing offense, with all six members of the defensive squadron playing considerably.

For the second consecutive year Bodcaw's Senior Boys had a hot night against Hope, this one bringing the Blue-Devils a fast moving 87-79 victory over the HHS "B" Lizards.

After staying as close as six points at 44-38 by intermission, the locals saw it fade away in a cool third segment. With Hope only managing 13 points, Bodcaw was sacking 22 to turn in a cool 66-51 margin after three quarters. The "B" Lizards fought back hard in the closing minutes, but not enough to turn the tide.

The loss felled the Hope team's record to 1-2, with losses to Bodcaw and Cale and the lone win over Springhill. Danny Reyenga and Jim Singleton led the Hope attack with 16 points apiece; Ricky Putman swished 12 and Jerry Turner provided 11 more. Johnny Johnson, Ronny Brown, and James Simmons all recorded six points, Ronnie Massanelli had four, and Fred McManus made it 79 with his two points. Newton meshed 35 and Moss 31 points to lead the winners.

Tonight sends at least the Bobkittens and Bobcats to Magnolia to face the Panthers, with the possibility also of a "B" game being scheduled. With two games the opener would begin at 6:30 p.m., but three contests would move the first tipoff up to 6:00.

This is the first regular-season 4-AA opponent for Hope, and the Panthers should give an early indication as to how the Bobcats size up in the early divisional competition. The uniqueness of this game is that Magnolia will use the Hope game in the same way, to see how Connie Maiorch's forces fare

Kansas Had 12 Men on Four Plays

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — An assistant football coach for Kansas was quoted today as saying he believes the Jayhawks had 12 men on the field for three plays in addition to the one that cost them a 15-14 Orange Bowl defeat by Penn State.

Dave McLain, linebacking coach, was quoted by sports-writer Charlie Smith in today's edition of the Topeka Daily Capitalist. McLain said he reached his conclusion after watching a video tape replay of the game.

"It's no wonder we were able to stop them for two plays," McLain said. "That 6-3-3 defense is pretty tough to run against."

Kansas appeared to have the game won, 14-13, when a two-point conversion attempt by Penn State failed. But Kansas was penalized for having 12 men on the field. Penn State tried again with 15 seconds left. Halfback Bob Campbell of the Nittany Lions slashed into the end zone for two points and the victory.

McLain said this is what happened before the conversion:

Tackles Jim Bailey and Orville Turgeon were sent into the game for Kansas following a 47-yard pass to the three-yard line that set up the touchdown. They were supposed to replace safety Tommy Anderson and linebacker Rick Abernathy.

Anderson left the field. Abernathy did not. Penn State ran two plays. Then quarterback Chuck Burkhardt skirted end for the touchdown. Counting the touchdown play and the unsuccessful conversion attempt, that made four plays.

The penalty moved the ball from the three to the one and a half yard line. Then Abernathy left the game.

McLain said, "When you go into the game, you're liable to yell 'Abernathy out!' from 10 yards away and maybe he didn't hear." Abernathy said later:

"We were in a defense which calls for three linebackers. I counted three heads and decided I was going to stay. Nobody tapped me to come out. How can you live something like this down? You feel embarrassed. You feel responsible. You don't care what the people in the stands think. You care about what the players think. That's the hardest thing."

Hinkle Still Fighting the Draft

SCAPPOOSE, Ore. (AP) — Robert J. Hinkle, 21, undergoes special examinations today as his parents continue their fight with the Army to keep him out of Vietnam.

"He's just a little boy. He'd be killed sure," said his mother, Mrs. Robert R. Hinkle.

"We've been given the run-around for seven months," says his father. "They said at Ft. Ord he would be sent to Ft. Lewis to serve his two years, but when his orders came out they read to Vietnam."

Robert, described by his father as a youth with a mental age of a 10-year-old, was to have left today for Oakland, Calif., and shipment to Vietnam.

Chicago Cold Especially on BB Court

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The temperature was supposed to drop to 65 degrees below zero in Alaska today, but it couldn't be any colder than the Chicago Bulls, found frozen in the field by the Atlanta Hawks.

The Bulls started Thursday with a hot, for them, three-game winning streak and held a 63-50 lead over the even hotter Hawks and their 10-game victory string in the third period when the temperature dropped.

Chicago went nine minutes and 40 seconds into the final period before hitting its first shot from the field in the quarter after missing 17 in a row. By then, Atlanta held a 98-78 lead and breezed to a 106-88 victory for No. 11.

Cincinnati dissipated a 20-point lead against Milwaukee at Madison, Wis., before coming back for a 113-109 decision over the Bucks, and Boston turned back San Diego 107-95 in the only other National Basketball Association games.

In the American Basketball Association, Miami beat Kentucky 110-106, Denver clobbered Houston 120-102 and New Orleans edged Los Angeles 112-111 in overtime.

Atlanta helped put the Bulls in deep freeze with a tight man-to-man defense, and Chicago managed only five baskets in the last 19 minutes, scoring only 14 points in the final quarter.

Wait Hazzard led Atlanta with 19 points while Bob Boozer had 27 for Chicago, but only nine in the last half and none in the final stanza.

Cincinnati jumped to an 85-65 lead before the Bucks came back and took a 102-101 lead with three minutes left. Jerry Lucas' jump finally put the Royals ahead to stay at 105-104 and Oscar Robertson scored Cincinnati's last eight points for a total of 25. Teammate Tom Van Arsdale had 28.

Boston had six men in double figures to offset a 32-point showing by San Diego's Elvin Hayes. John Havlicek and Tom Sanders led the way with 23 each.

Havlicek came off the bench in the final period to spark a Celtic rally in which Boston outscored the Rockets 9-2 for an 86-85 lead with 7:15 to play. The Celtics had led by 13 points at halftime, but the Rockets rallied to go ahead 75-74 in the final minute of the third quarter.

Harding Defeats Philander

SEARCHY, Ark. (AP) — Bobby McKeel flipped in 23 points to lead the Harding Bisons to a 95-75 nonconference victory over Philander Smith Thursday night.

Billy Robinson had 23 for Philander Smith, whose record is now 4-8. Harding's record is 9-3.

SE Missouri Beats State by 92-62

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Southwest Missouri State led all the way and defeated Arkansas State 92-62 in basketball Thursday night.

Greg Mess shot a career high of 17 points for Springfield. Curt Perry was leading rebounder with 15.

Springfield was ahead 81-46 with 8½ minutes left when the reserves went in.

Ron Brown and Shelly Haywood led Arkansas State scoring with 14 points apiece.

Springfield State is now 6-3 and Arkansas State 1-8.

Ex-Banker Apologizes for Error

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — W. C. Blewster of Magnolia, former president of the First National Bank of Magnolia, made a public apology in Thursday's issue of the Arkansas Baptist News-magazine "for the disappointments I have caused" in the misapplication of $50,000 in bank funds.

Blewster, a Baptist layman and member of the Central Baptist Church of Magnolia, pleaded guilty in 1965 to one or four charges stemming from his financial transactions as bank president, from which he resigned in 1964.

He was fined $5,000 and given a three-year suspended sentence in U.S. District Court at El Dorado and the other counts

Rockets Stay in Race With Oakland

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Denver Rockets continue to stay within hailing distance of Oakland in the American Basketball Association's Western Division race.

The Rockets doubled hapless Houston 120-102 Thursday night and sliced Oakland's lead to 7½ games. In other action, Miami beat Kentucky 110-106 and New Orleans nipped Los Angeles 112-111 in overtime.

In the National Basketball Association, Atlanta topped Chicago 106-88, Boston defeated San Diego 107-95 and Cincinnati outlasted Milwaukee 113-109.

Jeff Congdon, a substitute, ignited the fourth-quarter rally that sent Denver to its 14th victory in 16 home games. The former Brigham Young star hit a field goal and then stole the ball and made a perfect pass for the Rockets loose from an 83-83 tie.

Willie Murrell scored 23 of his 29 points in the second half as Miami rallied to beat Kentucky and move into a virtual tie with the Colonels for second place in the Eastern Division.

Kentucky's Darel Carrier took scoring honors with 30 points but the Colonels had only eight men in uniform and had to play cautiously.

New Orleans rebounded from an eight-point halftime deficit to edge Los Angeles, Jimmy Jones tied it in regulation time at 98-all with two free throws and Mike Butler's made two more in overtime to cement the triumph.

Butler's pair gave the Bucs a four-point lead with seconds to go and offset a three-point field goal by LA's Larry Miller. Steve Jones paced the winners with 31 points while Red Robbins added 25 and Jimmy Jones 24.

Big Scramble in Missouri Valley Loop

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Missouri Valley Conference basketball race is off to a typical scrambling start ... with Louisville's slick defending champs soaring again and 10th ranked Cincinnati reeling after an early knockdown.

The 14th ranked Cardinals, sparked by Butch Beard's outside shooting zipped past Wichita State 71-58 Thursday night at Louisville for their ninth victory without a loss and a 2-0 MVC mark.

Unranked Tulsa limited Cincinnati to 15 second half points on the way to a 57-40 home court triumph that kept the Golden Hurricane, 9-2 overall, even with Louisville in conference play.

Visiting Drake edged Memphis State 73-71 in its first MVC start for a 9-1 season mark and Bradley, a perennial Valley power, drubbed North Dakota 109-77 at Peoria, Ill., in a non-league game.

Unbeaten 12th ranked New Mexico State trimmed the University of Albuquerque 91-81 for its 10th victory and No. 18 New Mexico, upset by Butler earlier in the week, rebounded for a 68-64 decision over Denver. The rest of The Associated Press Top 20 teams were idle.

Louisville's Beard scored 27 points, hitting 12 of 21 shots from the floor, to lead the Cardinals' attack against the Shockers. Louisville held the visitors to three field goals in the first 12 minutes of the second half while running a one-point halftime edge to a commanding 56-41 bulge.

Tulsa overcame a seven-point intermission deficit against cold-shooting Cincinnati, 7-2, which went 7½ minutes without a point during one stretch. Bobby Smith's 21 points topped the winners, who shifted from a zone to man-to-man defense at the start of the second half and outscored Cincinnati 15-5 to take the lead for good.

Willie McCarter's jump shot with 42 seconds remaining gave Drake a 72-71 lead over the Tigers and Dolph Pulliam added a free throw with nine seconds to play. Memphis State's Rich Jones was the game's high scorer with 33 points while Willie Wise hit for 19 to pace the Bulldogs.

Bradley, 7-4, cruised past North Dakota behind L. C. Bowen's 35-point binge.

All five New Mexico State starters hit in double figures against stubborn Little Albuquerque, 6-foot-9 Sam Lacy leading the way with 24 points.

Denver gave New Mexico a scrap until the final three minutes, when the Lobos drew out to a five-point edge and then hung on. Willie Long, a 6-foot-8, sophomore, popped in 22 points for the winners.

27 Negroes to Get Rank of Colonel

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has selected 27 Negro officers for promotion to full colonel in a move to encourage more Negroes to make the service a career.

The action will double the number of Negroes now rated "bird" colonel and set the stage for possible advancement of more Negroes to the rank of colonel.

In its long history the Army has had only two Negro generals—Brig. Gen. Fred E. Davison, deputy commander of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade in Vietnam, and retired Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Sr.

A Pentagon spokesman said the 27 Negroes were among 1,053 Army officers selected for advancement beyond "light" colonel in a list drawn up last Nov. 6.

Jack Moskowitz, a deputy secretary of defense specializing in civil rights matters, hailed the move as "bound to encourage" more Negroes to aim for careers in the service. He said in an interview it is "proof" there is equality in the armed forces.

Moskowitz acknowledged that the services have been relatively slow elevating Negro officers to higher ranks since segregated units were banned in 1948, but "there's been a lot of spurring going on," he said.

When President Harry S. Truman ordered the desegregation of military units in 1948, the Army had only one Negro colonel among its 1,306 black officers.

In 1962, when President John

Grant Is Sought for Whetstones

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A request has been made to the Office of Technical Assistance for a $25,000 grant to pay for a study of uses and processing techniques for whetstones in Garland County.

The request was by the West Central Arkansas Economic Development District. Garland County is the only known area in the world where novaculite, from which whetstones are made, was deposited in large enough amounts to be mined from quarries, said Ralph Jefferson, assistant director of the district.

Jefferson said a Texas firm had tentatively committed itself to begin quarry operations within 60 days. He said the study would help reveal better ways of cutting novaculite, and help determine new markets for the stone.

He said the Texas firm indicated that within five years, assuming the study warranted it, it would be employing 400 workers.

F. Kennedy ordered a new look at equality in the services, there were only six Negro colonels.

The number rose to 10 in 1964, dropped to nine in 1965, then rose again to 16 in 1966 and to 27 by the end of 1967.

"We used to get complaints from Negroes and civil rights organizations that there weren't enough Negro officers in the higher levels," Moskowitz said. "We told them it was simply a matter of time and numbers."

The Army Times, an unofficial military newspaper, predicted the Negro colonels' selection would have a "ripple effect clear down to company grade officers."

year-old Senate dove whom Schweiker termed a "drawing room liberal."

Schweiker, 42, a four-term liberal-moderate is married and the father of four children. He's a businessman, a Navy veteran and 1950 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

Alan M. Cranston, 54, leaves a Los Angeles real estate and investment business to become California's new Democratic senator.

A foreign news correspondent in the 1930's he wrote and published an anti-Nazi version of Mein Kampf that sold 500,000 copies in the United States. He was an Army private during World War II.

In 1958, he was the first Democrat elected Controller of California in 72 years. In 1964, he was beaten by Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, for the California Democratic senatorial nomination. He and his wife have two sons.

Maryland Republican Charles W. Mathias, moved his office Thursday across the Capitol Plaza from the House to the Senate side.

Mathias, 46, defeated Democrat Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, 45, in November. He is often called a liberal or moderate and is considered an excellent compromiser in such controversies as open housing. He was recognized in the House for his work on civil rights legislation and anticrime bills.

He is married and has two sons.

Edward J. Gurney, who will be 55 Jan. 12, is Florida's first Republican senator since Reconstruction. A Maine-born conservative he won the Senate seat vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers with a big-margin victory over Democrat LeRoy Collins, former governor. Gurney served in the Army during World War II and was wounded and won the Silver Star.

An attorney and graduate of Harvard and Duke University law schools, Gurney became mayor of Winter Park, Fla., in 1961. He served three terms in the House of Representatives 1963-68. Gurney and his wife, Natalie Ahlborn Gurney, have two children.

James B. Allen, 56-year-old attorney and Democrat, takes the Senate seat from Alabama held by Democrat Lister Hill, who did not seek re-election. Allen whipped Republican Perry O. Hooper in November. Allen was twice lieutenant governor of Alabama and served in both the Alabama House and Senate. He was a strong supporter of former Gov. George Wallace.

Marlow Webster Cook a Kentucky judge for the last eight years, succeeds Republican Thurston Morton of Kentucky, who did not seek re-election. Republican Cook, 42, served in the Kentucky House of Representatives for two terms. He is married and has four daughters and a son.

Barry Goldwater returns to the U.S. Senate where he served 12 years before his unsuccessful 1964 bid for the presidency.

Little Rock:
Wants Something for Nothing

Last Dec. 21 the Arkansas Democrat published a piece clearly defining Little Rock's aims in attempting to persuade the state government to consolidate Little Rock University with the University of Arkansas.

The article, a guest editorial from Ralph K. Patrick's North Little Rock Times, opens with this declaration:

"Governor Rockefeller isn't doing anyone in Pulaski county any favors by insisting that a junior college be established here as a condition for the merger of Little Rock University of Arkansas. To impose such a stipulation on the residents and taxpayers of Pulaski county is to kill the merger."

Exactly. As one unalterably opposed to the merger I couldn't have phrased it better.

Openly and unashamedly Little Rock is asking the state government for something yet proposing to give nothing in return.

All the 46 years this editor has lived in Arkansas Little Rock has been trying to steal the University from Fayetteville. Stopped cold by the rest of the state Little Rock then adopted the back-door approach. It organized LRU with private financing, carefully promoted it despite operating losses—and now proposes by merger to acquire a piece of the Fayetteville institution and at the same time saddle the deficits and debts of its own venture onto the backs of all the taxpayers of Arkansas.

We had an identical attempt at Helena a couple of years ago, except that it was for a bridge instead of a school. Lacking a trans-state highway which would have justified state construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river, Helena organized an improvement district to build a bridge whose debt would be retired by tolls.

But traffic was less than anticipated, the debt got burdensome—and Helena harangued the governor and legislature to have the state take over the bridge . . . and its debts.

The state government told Helena "No."

Little Rock's a lot bigger than Helena—but justice demands that Little Rock get the same answer on LRU that the state gave to Helena about a bridge.

District Band Concert at 7 Saturday

The District Junior High Concert Band will rehearse all day Saturday and present a concert Saturday night at 7. There is no admission and everyone is invited.

Each player in the concert will wear the uniform of his own school and about 15 different schools and will participate. Hope placed 10 members in the band.

Stock Deal Basis of Big Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John K. Shamburger, a Little Rock lawyer, has filed a $1.3 million damage suit in U.S. District Court here against the Empire Life Insurance Co. of America at Galveston, Tex.

Also named as defendant is Shearn Moody Jr., chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Empire.

Shamburger, a stockholder in Republic Investors Life Insurance Co. of East Moline, Ill., said he cooperated with an unsuccessful move by the defendants to acquire control of Republic in April 1966 and that they agreed to purchase his stock for $2.60 a share.

He said the defendants repudiated the alleged agreement last Sept. 6 after engaging in "dilatory tactics."

Shamburger said he had been damaged $303,996 by the defendants refusal to purchase his stock for $2.60 a share. He also seeks $1 million punitive damages.

Kennedy to Replace Long, Party Whip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts won his bid to become the Senate's assistant Democratic leader as the 91st Congress opened today.

The Republicans also chose a new man.

Just before Kennedy unseated Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania was chosen by Republicans as assistant minority leader—or "whip"—over conservative Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska.

By a 31 to 26 vote of a Democratic caucus, the youngest and only surviving Kennedy brother snatched a victory which could speed his way to the White House.

The House settled its leadership problems Thursday with predictable results as Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts easily defeated the unprecedented first try of Arizona Democrat Morris Udall. Republican Gerald Ford of Michigan won re-election unopposed as minority leader.

In the Senate, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, in a move regarded as a first step toward a possible 1972 presidential bid, put up a close race with Louisiana's Russell B. Long for the No. 2 Democratic job of whip.

On the GOP side, Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott challenged for the whip position in another tight race with Nebraska's Roman Hruska.

The top Senate posts in each party remained in the hands of Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana, majority leader, and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, minority leader, who were unopposed.

In an 11th hour challenge, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin announced for the chairmanship of the Republican Policy Committee against Colorado Gordon Allott.

Although the position has declined in influence in recent years, Robert A. Taft once used it in his climb to Senate power.

With leadership contests and other formalities out of the way, the House and Senate will meet in joint session Monday to canvass presidential election returns, then turn to an array of issues that could provide early fireworks.

Both houses have before them a proposal to raise their own pay and the salaries of top federal officers including the President.

Bonita Granville One Movie Brat Fame Did Not Spoil, Says Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Some child actors are ruined for life by the precocious demands their careers make upon them before they reach maturity.

But that didn't happen to Bonita Granville, the movie brat whom film audiences a generation ago loved to hate.

Today she is happily married to Jack Wrather, millionaire rancher, oilman and entertainment entrepreneur, and keeps her hand in show business by working as assistant producer on his CBS television show, "Lassie."

Bonita, born in New York City, is the daughter of the late Bernard Granville, a Ziegfeld Follies star, and Rosina Timponi Granville, also a well known stage performer.

"My father was one of the first Broadway musical stars to earn $5,000 a week," she recalled.

Her own acting career started at the age of 7 when she went to Hollywood in 1931 and almost immediately was signed to appear in "Westward Passage," starring Ann Harding and a then obscure young British actor, Laurence Olivier.

One of the early highlights of her career was "These Three," in which she played a hateful brat so successfully that for a few years she was saddled with

Here's a Rundown on New Members of the 1969 U.S. Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — He's 17, a lawyer with at least six years experience in politics, is married and has three children, served in World War II and last November won a hard, close fight.

He has little reputation nationally. His political beliefs tend to be moderate.

Who is he? The newest member of what often is called the world's most exclusive club—the U.S. Senate.

This is a composite picture of the 15-member Class of '69 that is sworn in today. Here is a breakdown on the individuals:

William B. Saxbe, a long-shot last spring when he agreed to run for the seat held by the veteran Democrat Frank J. Lausche, is 52, and had been Ohio's Republican attorney general since 1963.

Lausche lost in the Democratic primary to former Rep. John J. Gilligan, and Saxbe beat Gilligan in November.

Elected a member of the Ohio General Assembly in 1946, Saxbe was speaker in 1947-48. The Saxbes have three children.

Former Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., defeated Democrat Joseph S. Clark, a two-term thrice-married, 66-

New Cold Wave Rolls Across U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A new wave of arctic cold spilled into the plains and Midwest today and ended a brief sampling of near-normal winter temperatures.

Snow, freezing rain and sleet broke out ahead of the fresh surge of frigid weather. Travelers warnings were issued for the central plains where snow or blowing snow reduced visibility.

A mixture of freezing rain and sleet spread across Missouri to Kentucky and Tennessee to make travel hazardous in portions of those states. Cold rain spreading northward from the Gulf Coast brought warnings of possible icing in northern Georgia and Alabama.

Temperatures bounded into the 20s and 30s across much of the plains—and Midwest Thursday following three days of subzero cold. But the new chill was expected to drop the mercury into minus territory over much of the region by Saturday morning.

Snow flurries again dusted the area from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians, and local squalls dumped more snow along the eastern shores of Lakes Erie and Ontario. However, much of the East was several degrees warmer than early Thursday.

Rain lingered along the northern Pacific coast and light snow flaked inland to the Rockies.

Receiver Held in Contempt

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Raymond Padgett, court-appointed receiver of the National Silica Co. at Nasco (Izard County), was found in contempt of court Thursday by U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley.

Padgett turned up in Little Rock Thursday after a three-month absence from the state. Henley said that Padgett had failed to give a satisfactory explanation of why he had ignored court orders to file his final accounting.

Henley appointed Padgett, 35, receiver in 1967 after the Small Business Administration filed suit to foreclose its mortgage on the National Silica property, which was sold at public auction Aug. 15 and the receivership ended at that time.

Henley issued an order Oct. 7 directing Padgett to show cause at a hearing Oct. 18 why he shouldn't be held in contempt of court for not filing his final accounting. Padgett failed to appear for the hearing.

Padgett said he had been living at Mobile, Ala.

Alabama Man Is Nazarene Pastor

Rev. Thomas Hearman, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, South Arkansas District, met with the local church, on Elm St., Tuesday evening.

Rev. W.L. French will minister until Rev. Rushing arrives.

Rockefeller Asks 4% Sales Tax

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's tax proposals, comparing the taxes now with what they would be under the new plan:

Sales Tax

State tax now is three cents on each $1 worth of purchases; it would be four cents on each $1 under the new plan.

Cigarette Tax

State tax now is eight cents per pack; it would be 13 cents per pack under the new plan.

Income Tax

State tax now is $30 on the first $3,000 of taxable income; it would still be $30 on the first $3,000 under the new plan.

State tax now is $60 on the second $3,000 of taxable income; it would be $90 on the second $3,000 under the new plan.

State tax now is $90 on the third $3,000 of taxable income; it would be $150 on the third $3,000 under the new plan.

State tax now is $60 of the next $2,000 of taxable income; it would be $140 on the next $2,000 under the new plan.

State tax now is $560 on the next $14,000 of taxable income; it would be $980 on the next $14,000 under the new plan.

State tax also is levied at the rate of five per cent on any remaining taxable income; it would be levied at the rate of nine per cent of any remaining taxable income under the new plan.

Red Warships Invited by Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The Lebanese government has virtually invited Soviet warships to visit Lebanon and told the U.S. 6th Fleet to stay away, Beirut newspapers reported today.

Government officials said they had no confirmation of the reported sharp switch in Lebanon's traditional pro-Western policy.

The right-wing newspaper Al Nahar reported that premier Abdulla Yafi expressed the view that U.S. Navy ships would be unwelcome because of Washington's recent decision to sell 50 Phantom jets to Israel.

It said Yafi believed an American visit would "generate adverse public reaction."

Al Jarida, another right-wing newspaper, carried a similar report, attributing it to "ministerial sources."

200 Millions Sought for Ark. Schools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An appropriation of more than $200 million for the state Education Department for the next biennium was recommended Thursday by the Arkansas Legislative Council.

This came after the council amended the proposed compensation and classification plan for state employees to provide more money for those in the lowest pay grades.

The council voted to raise the pay of employees in the bottom eight grades and to revise the council's budget recommendation accordingly.

It was estimated the new plan would require about $290,000 more in the first year of the biennium than the plan the council originally was using and more than $400,000 the second year.

For the department, the council recommended $104.5 million the first year and $106.7 million the second year, excluding salaries.

The salaries, when revised in accordance with the compensation plan, will add about $800,000 a year to those figures.

For state colleges and universities, which will not be covered under the compensation plan, the council voted to freeze the salaries at current levels.

The council also added $90,000 each year of the biennium to the Education Department's request for the education of crippled children.

Animals' Assistance to Medicine to Be Repaid by Transplant

By TERRI SHAW
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The surgeon who directed a heart and kidney transplant on New Year's Eve has agreed to perform open-heart surgery on a German shepherd puppy as a gesture of gratitude to the many animals used in heart research.

Dr. C. Walton Lillehei, surgeon-in-chief at New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, plans to make X-ray studies today of Kai, the four-month-old pet of Allan and Kevin Fogel, 8-year-old twins of Brooklyn.

On Tuesday, Dr. Lillehei directed a 60-man team in transplanting the heart and kidneys of a 48-year-old psychoanalyst to three recipients.

Dr. Lillehei, a former teacher of Dr. Christian Barnard who performed the first human heart transplant, volunteered to perform the open-heart operation "on behalf of the many dogs who have served to benefit mankind in helping develop these techniques."

"Dogs have been the backbone of open-heart surgery," he added, explaining that their hearts are "almost identical" to the human heart.

Dr. Lillehei read about the dog's plight in a letter to The Daily News from Kai's owners.

In the letter, the young boys said their veterinarian had told them that Kai must be put to sleep because he had a congenital heart defect which can only be cured by surgery.

Kai was examined by Dr. Lillehei and admitted to the hospital's kennel for experimental animals Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Lillehei said he and his colleagues suspect that the veterinarian's diagnosis is correct and one of the valves in the pup's heart will have to be replaced.

If the tests confirm this diagnosis, he said, the operation may be performed some time next week.

Egypt May Swap Greek for Arabs

ATHENS (AP) — There was speculation in Athens today that the Egyptian government might offer to exchange the Greek who hijacked a Greek airliner for the two Arab terrorists who shot up an Israeli airliner at Athens airport.

The plane and 102 of the persons aboard it returned safely to Athens Thursday, but Egyptian authorities were holding the hijacker in Cairo. A government source said the Greek Embassy in Cairo was being kept informed of his interrogation.

There is no extradition treaty between Greece and Egypt, and it was not known if Greece would make an official request for the man's return. The two Arabs who shot up the El Al airliner last week, killing an Israeli passenger, are held in Athens on a variety of charges including homicide.

The Olympic Airways DC6 was diverted over the eastern Mediterranean Thursday by a gunman who fired a warning shot through a cockpit window and ordered the pilot to fly to Cairo.

Olympic Airways, owned by Aristotile Onassis, sent a jetliner to pick up the 97 other passengers, who included seven Americans. The plane window was repaired, and after refueling the crew flew the aircraft to Athens Thursday night.

The Greek government said the hijacker was George Flamourides, 30, a former army deserter from Crete who was jailed in 1967 for disobedience and insubordination. He was freed by a 1968 New Year's amnesty.

Egyptian authorities said Flamourides told them he diverted the plane to Cairo because he had been "hounded and persecuted" as an opponent of the military regime in Greece.

The plane was on a 50-minute flight from Crete to Athens when Flamourides took it over.

MIAMI (AP) — A giant Eastern Airlines stretchjet with 148 persons aboard landed at Havana today under orders of a hijacker who took command of the nonstop New York-Miami flight.

Two Eastern turboprop planes were ordered to the airport at Varadero, Cuba, to retrieve the kidnapped passengers but no time for the flight was set, according to John Graffius, acting area manager for the Federal Aviation Administration.

The hijacked jet, which landed in Havana at 1:05 a.m. EST, was the first plane hijacked to Cuba this year. Last year there were 20 successful hijackings to Cuba, 13 of them from the United States.

Eastern said its DC-8-61, largest commercial jetliner in America, carrying 140 passengers and eight crew members left New York's Kennedy Airport at 9:52 p.m. Thursday and was due in Miami at 12:30 a.m.

About an hour before Flight 401 was scheduled to land at Miami International Airport, Capt. Dennis Vanhuss radioed the Federal Aviation Administration at Jacksonville, Fla. FAA supervisor Harold Jensen said Vanhuss reported, "I am going to Havana."

The plane at that point was 60 miles east of Jacksonville.

There was no immediate word on what went on aboard the plane.

Most hijackings have featured a man with a gun, who threatened a crew member and ordered the pilot to fly to Havana. None has resisted.

The FAA said the Eastern plane was cleared direct to Cuba soon after the hijacking was reported.

In addition to Vanhuss, the crew included First Officer J.R. Cooper and Second Officer T.F. Walby in the cockpit, all based in New York.

Stewardesses, working out of Miami, were Nancy Wilson, Cathy Geromino, Linda Abolt, Kathy McCormick and Catherine Tolian.

After landing in Cuba, hijacked planes usually are flown to Miami by the crew while passengers go by bus to Varadero—a three-hour ride—and are picked up there by planes sent from Florida.

The last previous hijacking to Cuba, also an Eastern plane, was on Dec. 19, 1968, when a jet flying nonstop from Philadelphia to Miami was diverted.

On Thursday the FBI at Miami filed a complaint naming Thomas George Washington, 27, of Gary, Ind., as its hijacker.

The FBI said Washington took his daughter, Jennifer Robin, 3, from his divorced wife in Philadelphia and boarded the plane; along with 140 other passengers.

Washington was charged with air piracy and bond for him was set at $100,000. However, he and the child remained in Cuba.

Sheriff in Revenge, on Fugitive Hunt

HOPEWELL, Miss. (AP) — Sheriff Fred Thomas headed a search today for four armed prisoners who had held him and two coworkers as hostage after breaking from the Hinds County jail at Jackson.

Thomas was released unharmed along with James Harzog, the jailer, and John Mowdy, a radioman, 90 minutes after the break Thursday night.

The prisoners were identified as Kenneth Albert Bankston, 35, of Harrisville, Willie Lewis Price, 24, of Bassfield, James Ralph Murphy, 37, of Jackson, and John Wallace Brooks, 21, of Jackson.

The men carried a gun carved from soap and colored with shoe polish. They reportedly took two pistols from a desk in the cell block on the top floor of the courthouse, then took Harzog down an elevator to the second floor. There they forced Thomas and Mowdy to accompany them to the sheriff's car.

The prisoners were released on a country road about 25 miles south of Jackson. The escapees took Thomas' two-day-old car, his revolver and about $270.

Autos Collide at 3rd, Hervey

Hope Police Dept. answered a call at 8:05 a.m. Friday to West Third and Hervey Sts. where a car driven by Wayne Bohannon, pulling away from a stop sign on Hervey St. collided with the side of a State Highway Dept. car driven by Claude Dunne, Jr.

Damage was listed as heavy. No charges were filed. Sgt. Carl Ward and Officer Leon Neal investigated.
